ED275 Welcome

Hi. I’m Pam Gladis, a librarian at SMSU’s McFarland Library. I’d like to welcome you to the ED275 Library Research Guide and encourage you to reach out to a librarian if you have any questions about the resources highlighted in this guide.

As you can see in the Need Assistance box on this page, there are many ways to reach out. If you are on-campus, a good option would be to stop at the Research Help Desk on the library’s 3rd floor as we’ll be able to guide you to print resources and answer your questions. If you are off-campus, you’ll likely have better luck if you schedule a Research Consultation with a librarian. You are welcome to do that if you are an on-campus student as well!

Know that we’re to help you; you just need to ask! Happy researching!
